

Thank goodness for caller ID. I have signed up for this DO NOT CALL LIST and apparently companies that do business through India and use telemarketers there do not think that they must comply. When I told one gentleman that our name was on this list his reply was : "OOOOh I'm very scared!". Do not make any changes to this process, please!